DEEPAK SIBAL, J. (ORAL)

The present petition has been filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C. for quashing of FIR No.0032 dated 06.06.2016 registered under Sections 406 and 498-A IPC at Police Station Women, District Amritsar City and all proceedings arising therefrom qua the petitioners on the basis of a settlement (Annexure P-2) entered into between the parties in the proceedings under Section 13-B of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955.

On 23.05.2022/22.08.2022 this Court had directed the parties to appear before the Illaqa Magistrate/Trial Court for recording of their respective statements with regard to the compromise, who in turn was directed to submit a report along with the recorded statements with regard to the veracity of the compromise between the parties as also to apprise this Court whether all the accused are party to the compromise; whether any of them have ever been declared proclaimed offender(s) and if is there any other criminal case pending against them.

As directed, report dated 15.09.2022 from the Judicial Magistrate

Ist Class, Amritsar has been received as per which the parties had recorded their statements before the Trial Court in terms of the compromise arrived at between them; the same is genuine and has been effected between the parties voluntarily, without any undue influence or coercion; only the petitioners are arrayed as the accused; they have not been declared proclaimed offender(s) and that no other criminal case is pending against them.

Learned State counsel has no objection if the present petition is allowed.

In view of the above, continuation of the proceedings in pursuance of the afore-referred FIR which arises from a matrimonial dispute as also the matter having been compromised, would be an abuse of the process of law and in terms of the law laid down by the Supreme Court in Narinder Singh vs. State of Punjab (2014) 6 SCC 466, this Court deems it just and proper to allow the petition and resultantly quash FIR No.0032 dated 06.06.2016 registered under Sections 406 and 498-A IPC at Police Station Women, District Amritsar City and all proceedings arising therefrom qua the petitioners.
