Counsel for the petitioner submits that marriage of the daughter of the petitioner was solemnized with respondent No.4 on 12.03.2018 in District Moga. She submits that before the marriage, more than Rs.16 lakhs was given to the private respondents. In the year 2019, his daughter went to Canada to join the company of her husband. However in Canada, her husband made more demands and turned her out of matrimonial home. Counsel submits that petitioner's daughter has already filed complaints to the Canadian Police and he has submitted representations, Annexures P-6 and P-7, to the official respondents in India, which have not been attended to. Counsel submits that the petitioner would be satisfied, in case the official respondents are directed to look into the representations.
