The brief facts of the case are that the appellant stood surety for his son-Anil, who violated the bail conditions and did not appear before the concerned Court, which led to issuance of non-bailable warrants against the petitioner as a surety and after that the Concerned Court directed him to pay the surety amount and imposed penalty of Rs.one lac and in default of payment of penalty, civil imprisonment of six months has imposed under Section 446 Cr.P.C. Recovery warrants was also issued for recovery of amount.

On the face of it, the petitioner who is the father of the accused had social and moral compulsions to stand for his son. It was for the son who have made default and implicated his father.

Be that as it may, the amount of Rs.one lac as surety amount is on a very higher side and it is reduced to Rs.25,000/- to be deposited by 23.12.2022. It is clarified that if the reduced amount is not deposited within the stipulated time, this order shall stand recalled automatically under Section 362 Cr.P.C. without any further reference to this Court.

Petition stands allowed to the extent as mentioned above.

All pending application(s), if any, stand disposed of.
