VIKAS BAHL, J. (Oral)

The present Criminal Writ Petition has been filed under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India for issuance of direction to the official respondents to protect the life and personal liberty of the petitioner.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner is the wife of respondent No. 4 and has given a representation dated 13.05.2022 to respondent No. 2-Senior Superintendent of Police to protect her life and liberty. It is submitted that in the said representation, averments have been made on account of which there is a reasonable apprehension in the mind of the petitioner with respect to her life and liberty. Learned counsel for the petitioner has further submitted that he will be satisfied in case the present petition is disposed of with direction to respondent No. 2 to consider the representation dated 13.05.2022 on the limited aspect of protection of life and liberty of the petitioner.

After considering the above-said facts and without expressing any opinion on merits of the case, the present criminal writ petition is disposed of with a direction to respondent No. 2 to look into the representation dated 13.05.2022 (Annexure P-2) and to assess the threat perception to the petitioner and after considering the same, respondent No. 2 shall take appropriate action, in accordance with law.

It is, however, clarified that this order shall not debar the State from proceeding against the petitioners, if involved in any other case.
