ARVIND SINGH SANGWAN, J. (Oral)

Prayer in this petition is for transfer of Civil Suit No.CS/1222/2022 filed by the respondent/father-in-law of the petitioner, pending before the Civil Judge (Sr. Divn.), Amritsar to the competent Court of jurisdiction at Ludhiana.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has argued that on an earlier occasion, petition under Section 9 of Hindu Marriage Act filed by husband of the petitioner, namely Harinder Singh, was transferred to Ludhiana vide order dated 16.12.2020 passed in TA-527-2020. Thereafter, he had gone abroad and now the instant suit has been filed by the respondent/father-in-law of the petitioner, praying for a decree of mandatory injunction directing the petitioner-defendant to bring the minor grand-daughter to Amritsar for the purpose of visit and to meet her.

Learned counsel further submits that on account of matrimonial discord, the petitioner has filed a petition under Section 125 Cr.P.C., a petition/complaint under the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act at Ludhiana and also lodged an FIR No.50 dated 25.11.2020 under Sections 406, 498-A IPC, at Police Station Women, District Police Commissionerate Ludhiana. It is further submitted that the petitioner is facing great difficulty in prosecuting the case filed by the respondent, as there is a distance of about 150 kms from Ludhiana to Amritsar.

Learned counsel has further contended that the petitioner is having a minor daughter, who is living in her care and custody and she is facing difficulty to defend the case, as she has to travel from Ludhiana to Amritsar.

Learned counsel has relied upon the judgments Sumita Singh Vs. Kumar Sanjay, 2002 SC 396 and Rajani Kishor Pardeshi Vs. Kishor Babulal Pardeshi, 2005(12) SCC 237, wherein the Hon'ble Supreme Court observed that while deciding the transfer application, the Courts are required to give more weightage and consideration to the convenience of the female litigants and transfer of legal proceedings from one Court to another should ordinarily be allowed, taking into consideration their convenience and the Courts should desist from putting female litigants

under undue hardships.”

Learned counsel has further relied upon N.C.V. Aishwarya Vs. A.S. Saravana Karthik Sha, 2022 Live Law (SC) 627, wherein the Hon’ble Supreme Court held as under: - “The cardinal principle for exercise of power under Section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure is that the ends of justice should demand the transfer of the suit, appeal or other proceeding. In matrimonial matters, wherever Courts are called upon to consider the plea of transfer, the Courts have to take into consideration the economic soundness of both the parties, the social strata of the spouses and their behavioural pattern, their standard of life prior to the marriage and subsequent thereto and the circumstances of both the parties in eking out their livelihood and under whose protective umbrella they are seeking their sustenance to life. Given the prevailing socioeconomic paradigm in the Indian society, generally, it is the wife’s convenience which must be looked at while considering transfer.

Further, when two or more proceedings are pending in different Courts between the same parties which raise common question of fact and law, and when the decisions in the cases are interdependent, it is desirable that they should be tried together by the same Judge so as to avoid multiplicity in trial of the same issues and conflict of decisions.”

As per office report, the respondent is served, however, there is no representation on his behalf.

It is well settled that while considering the transfer of a matrimonial dispute/case at the instance of the wife, the Court is to consider family condition of the wife, custody of the minor child, economic condition of the wife, her physical health and earning capacity of the husband and most important, convenience of the wife i.e. she cannot travel alone without assistance of a male member of her family, connectivity of the place to and fro from her place of residence as well as bearing of the litigation charges and travelling expenses.

After hearing the counsel for the petitioner, considering the fact that the petitioner will have to bear the litigation expenses and transportation expenses and in view of the judgments in Sumita Singh's case (supra), Rajani Kishor Pardeshi's case (supra) and N.C.V. Aishwarya's case (supra) passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court, this Court deem it appropriate to allow the present petition, subject to the following conditions:-

- 1. The Civil Suit No.CS/1222/2022 filed by the respondent, pending before the Civil Judge (Sr. Divn.), Amritsar will be transferred to the competent Court of jurisdiction at Ludhiana.*
- 2. The District Judge, Ludhiana will assign the said suit to the competent Court of jurisdiction.*

3. The Civil Judge (Sr. Divn.), Amritsar is directed to transfer all the record pertaining to the aforesaid case to District Judge, Ludhiana.
4. The parties are directed to appear before the Family Court, Ludhiana within a period of 01 month from today.

Present petition is disposed of accordingly.
