IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

(220)

CRM-M-26481-2021.
Date of Decision:-10.02.2022.

Nisha and another

.....Petitioners

Versus

State of Punjab and others

.....Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SURESHWAR THAKUR

Present: Mr. Subhash Kumar, Advocate for the petitioners.

Mr. Bhupender Beniwal, AAG, Punjab.

(Through Video Conferencing)

SURESHWAR THAKUR, J. (Oral)

The prayer made in the instant petition is for the making of a mandamus being upon respondent Nos.1 to 4, to conduct a fair and impartial investigation, into the allegations leveled against the private respondents, and, as become carried respectively in Annexures P-3, and, in P-4.

This Court would have proceeded to make a direction, upon the respondents concerned, to through a speaking order, and, in a time-bound manner, make a decision upon Annexures P-3 and P-4, however, it is stated at the bar by the learned counsel for the State, that during the pendency of the instant petition, the official respondents have made a speaking decision, in accordance with law, upon, the allegations made in

Annexures P-3 and P-4.

Therefore, the above prayer made in the instant petition becomes completely infructuous, and, consequently the petition becomes infructuous, and, is disposed of as such.

However, liberty is yet reserved to the petitioners to recourse all available remedies, in accordance with law. Moreover, if any life endangering threat is meted to the petitioners by the private respondents, thereupon, it is permissible for the petitioners to access the official respondents concerned, and, the latter shall in accordance with law, provide the requisite protection to the petitioners.
