Date of Decision: 15th July, 2022

Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab and another

Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AVNEESH JHINGAN

Present: Mr. Arvinder Singh, Advocate for the petitioners.
Mr. Amit Mehta, Senior DAG, Punjab.
Mr. Harpal Singh, Advocate for respondent No. 2.

AVNEESH JHINGAN, J (Oral):

This is a petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C. for quashing of FIR No. 59 dated 7.5.2020, under Sections 420, 465, 467, 468, 471 IPC, registered at Police Station Arniwala, District Fazilka and all subsequent proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise.

The FIR was at the instance of Sukhdev Singh. As per the allegations, the petitioner sold a stolen car to the complainant for Rs.62,000/-. Later the car was taken away by the police.

On 30.5.2022, the parties were directed to appear before the Illaqa Magistrate/trial court for getting their statements recorded with regard to compromise.

The report dated 12.7.2022 is received stating that the compromise is genuine, voluntary, without any coercion or undue influence and that there is only one accused and he has not been declared as proclaimed offender.

Full Bench of this Court in Kulwinder Singh and others vs. State of Punjab, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052, has held:-

“There is no statutory bar in Cr.P.C. which affects inherent power of this Court under Section 482. The power of quashing is not limited to matrimonial cases alone.”

The Supreme Court in Parbatbhai Aahir @ Parbatbhai Bhimsinhbhai Karmur and others v. State of Gujarat and another, 2017 AIR (SC) 4843 laid down the broad principles governing the exercises of powers of quashing of FIR. It was held that the power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. is to be exercised by the High Court to secure the ends of justice, to prevent abuse of any process of law and in cases where in view of the compromise the possibility of conviction is remote and continuation of proceeding will cause oppression and prejudice.

The present dispute has a tone and tenor of commercial transaction. The grievance was that the money was not returned. The parties have settled the differences and have decided to settle the issue and not to litigate any further. No useful purpose would be served by continuing with the trial. To meet the ends of justice, the FIR mentioned above and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom are quashed.

The petition is allowed.
