Notice of motion.

Mr. Ramdeep Partap Singh, learned DAG, Punjab, accepts notice at the asking of the court on behalf of respondent no.1, with Mr. Vishal Munjal, Advocate, appearing for respondents no.2 and 3. He will file a power of attorney duly executed by respondents no.2 and 3 in his favour well before the next date of hearing.

In the meanwhile, the petitioners, as also respondents no.2 and 3, would appear before the learned trial court/Ilaqa Magistrate upto 11.08.2021 to record their statements. The trial court/Ilaqa Magistrate would satisfy itself with regard to the authenticity of the compromise and the fact that it has been arrived at without any kind of undue influence or pressure, and would thereafter send its report to this court, before the next date of hearing.

That court would also verify whether there is any other person involved in the occurrence, who is not a party to the present petition and whose consent for the compromise would be required, if this court comes to the conclusion that the FIR sought to be quashed can be so quashed.

A gazetted officer is directed to file an affidavit stating therein whether there are any other criminal cases registered against the petitioners of like nature or otherwise; also annexing therewith the MLRs showing the kind of injuries received by the victims, and the opinion of the doctor thereon. ”

4. Pursuant to the aforesaid order, report from Chief Judicial Magistrate, Gurdaspur dated 28.07.2021 has been received, which is taken on record. As per the report, the trial Court has recorded as follows:-

“xx xx xx

It is submitted that from the statements of the parties, it appears that the compromise is genuine, voluntary and without any undue influence or pressure. There is no any other person involved in the present occurrence as per statement of Investigating Officer.”

5. Learned State counsel has stated no objection in case the FIR is quashed based upon the compromise.

6. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the records of the case.

7. After considering judgment rendered by the Apex Court in Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another, 2012(10) SCC 303, State of Madhya Pradesh vs. Laxmi Narayan and others (2019) 5 SCC 688, Kulwinder Singh & others Vs. State of Punjab & another, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Ram Gopal and another vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, 2021(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 322 (Criminal Appeal No.1489 of 2012 decided on 29th of September, 2021), the proposition of law that emerges from the aforesaid decisions rendered by Apex Court and this Court is :

- (a) Power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. vested with this Court is not affected by Section 320 of the Code.
- (b) However, wider the power greater the caution.
- (c) The underlining principle while exercising such power is that it can be invoked to quash the proceedings recognizing compromise between the parties in the matters which are overwhelmingly and predominantly of civil character like commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes.

- (d) The said power is not to be exercised in the prosecutions involving heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society.
- (e) Section 482 Cr.P.C. casts duty upon the High Court to advance interest of justice as well. It is in recognition of this duty casted upon the High Court, that Apex Court held that the High Court would not refuse to quash FIR under Section 307 merely because FIR finds mention thereof. High Court can assess nature of injuries sustained, whether such injuries inflicted on vital/delicate parts of the body/nature of weapons used etc.
- (f) Such exercise at the hands of High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and chargesheet is filed/charges framed during the trial. Such exercise cannot be carried out while the matter is still under investigation.
- (g) While quashing FIR in non-compoundable offences even which are of private in nature, High Court is required to consider antecedents of the accused, conduct of the accused and whether he was absconding or whether he has managed the complainant to enter into a compromise.

8. Thus, keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to exercise jurisdiction vested u/s 482 Cr.P.C. to quash the FIR as :-

- (i) The present matter does not fall within the exceptions as carved out in Laxmi Narayan's case (supra).
- (ii) The offences are of private nature.
- (iii) The parties have compromised.
- (iv) As per the report received the compromise is said to be voluntary in its nature.

- (v) Complainant/victim has entered into compromise on his own volition.

9. Consequently, the petition is allowed. FIR No.15 dated 21.01.2021, registered for the offences punishable under Sections 326, 324 and 34 of IPC at Police Station City Gurdaspur, District Gurdaspur and all proceedings arising therefrom, are, hereby, quashed qua the petitioners.
