Versus

State of Haryana and others

..Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KSHETARPAL

Present: Mr. Narender Kaajla, Advocate for the petitioners
 Mr. J.S.Pannu, AAG, Haryana

ANIL KSHETARPAL, J (Oral)

The petitioners, who are 36 in number, claim to be entitled to apportionment of the compensation, for compulsory acquisition of the land. They claim that the Additional District Judge, Hisar, while disposing of the matter under Section 3H(4) of the National Highways Act, 1956, on the basis of settlement has not heard the petitioners.

The National Highways Act, 1956, is a complete Code for adjudication of the disputes with regard to the entitlement and apportionment. Section 3H expressly entitles any person, who is interested in the compensation, to file an application to the Land Acquisition Collector, under Section 3H(4). The petitioners, if so advised, may avail that remedy.

Disposed of.

All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
