Case No.NACT-849-2020

CNR No.PBFZE1-003356-2020

1. Challenging the order of proclamation on being declared proclaimed offenders, the petitioners have come up before this court under section 482 of Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (CrPC).
2. The accused could not be served through the ordinary process, including summons, bailable warrants, and even non-bailable warrants. The concerned court finally proceeded against the petitioners under section 82 of CrPC and declared the petitioners a proclaimed offender vide order dated 30.11.2021, passed by the learned CJJD-cum-JMIC, Abohar.
3. After arguing for considerable time, Id. counsel for the petitioners submits that the criminal justice system must not hamper and suffer because of the petitioners. Thus, would confine the prayers in the petition to grant of bail on the petitioner's surrendering before the majesty of the concerned court, and reserving liberty to raise the given-up relief in the subsequent petition(s), if the need so arises.
4. Id. counsel appearing for the State has strenuously opposed this petition
5. Given above, this court is confining the adjudication of this matter to the extent mentioned herein before, reserving the liberty to the petitioners as prayed.
6. The petitioners offers the explanation for non-appearance by stating that it due to hospitalization being ill-health of petitioner No.1, he could not appear before the concerned Court. As far as petitioner No.2 is concerned being a real brother of petitioner No.1, he was attending and caring him during his treatment.

7. The primary object of service is to secure the accused presence in trial. The petitioners have approached this court on its own, which establishes the bonafide at this stage. Without adjudicating the explanation offered and stand taken by the petitioners, this court, in the exercise of its inherent powers under section 482 CrPC, deems it appropriate to grant the following limited relief to the petitioners, subject to the compliance of the conditions mentioned in this order.

8. The possibility of the accused henceforth not attending the trial, and the likelihood of fleeing justice, can be taken care of by imposing elaborative and stringent conditions. In Sushila Aggarwal, (2020) 5 SCC 1, Para 92, the Constitutional Bench held that unusually, subject to the evidence produced, the Courts can impose restrictive conditions.

9. Without commenting on the case's merits, and in the facts and circumstances peculiar to this case, and also for the reasons mentioned above, the ends of justice would meet with the following order.

10. The petitioners shall surrender before the concerned court within ten days from today. In case of any change in the above particulars, the petitioners shall immediately and not later than 30 days from such modification, intimate about the change to the concerned Police Station and the concerned Court.

12. There shall be a stay of the petitioners' arrest in the case mentioned above for fifteen days however, if the petitioner fails to appear within the time stipulated above, then stay on arrest shall stand vacated without any further reference to this court. The petitioners shall neither clear the location history, WhatsApp chats, calls nor format the phone without permission of the concerned SHO/I.O. This condition shall continue till the completion of the trial or closure of case, whatever is earlier.

14. Within fifteen days from today, the petitioners shall deposit a sum of rupees five-thousand each in 'High Court Lawyers Welfare Fund,' Account number 65018692589, IFSC code SBIN0050306, Branch Code 50306, Branch Address State Bank of India, High Court Branch, Sector 1, Chandigarh. After depositing, the petitioners shall file the proof of deposit, before the concerned court and send its copy alongwith a copy of this order to the Secretary, Punjab & Haryana High Court Bar Association, either in physical or electronic mode.
