AT CHANDIGARH

201

CRM-M-28362 of 2021
Date of Decision:24.02.2022

Charanjit Kaur and another

..... Petitioners

Versus

State of Punjab

..... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AMOL RATTAN SINGH

Present: Mr. Amit Shukla, Advocate, for the petitioners.

Mr. M.S. Nagra, AAG, Punjab

AMOL RATTAN SINGH, J. (ORAL)

Case heard via video conferencing.

An affidavit has been filed by the DSP, Sub Division Sangrur, dated 16.02.2022, which is ordered to be taken on record.

It is stated in the reply that the investigation in the FIR being complete, a report under Section 173 of the Cr.P.C. has been prepared “against both the petitioners/accused” and would be presented to the competent court and that the custodial interrogation of the petitioners is not required.

That being so, this being a petition by which the petitioners seek to be admitted to bail in the context of the FIR in question registered, alleging therein the commission of an offence punishable under Section 306, read with Section 34 of the IPC, without making any comment whatsoever on the actual merits of the case, the order admitting them to interim bail is made absolute.

However, for the purpose of clarification, it is again repeated that admitting the petitioners to bail does not in any manner reflect the opinion of this court as regards the complicity of the petitioners in the commission of the offence or otherwise; with, naturally, the competent court to go into that issue wholly on the basis of evidence led and the law cited on the subject.
