On 04.07.2022, this Court was pleased to pass the following order:-

“This is a petition filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C. for quashing of FIR No. 68 dated 28.03.2017 registered under Sections 279, 337, 338 and 427 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 at Police Station Beas, District Amritsar Rural (Annexure P-1) and subsequent proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise.

Notice of motion for 27.07.2022.

On asking of the Court, Mr. Sarabjit S. Cheema, AAG, Punjab appears and accepts notice on behalf of the respondent-State and Mr. Gurjinder Singh Thind, Advocate appears on behalf of respondent No. 2 and filed his power of attorney, same is taken on record.

The parties are directed to appear before the Illaqa Magistrate/trial Court for recording their statements qua compromise within a period of 15 days.

The Illaqa Magistrate/trial Court is directed to submit a report on or before the next date of hearing containing the following information:-

- 1. Number of persons arrayed as accused.*
- 2. Whether any accused is proclaimed offender?*
- 3. Whether the compromise is genuine, voluntary and without any coercion or undue influence?*
- 4. Whether the accused persons are involved in any other FIR or not?*
- 5. The trial Court is also directed to record the statement of the Investigating Officer as to how many victims/complainants are there in the FIR. ”*

In pursuance of the said order, a report has been submitted by the Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Baba Bakala Sahib, District Amritsar to the Registrar (Judicial) of this Court. The relevant portion of the said report is reproduced hereinbelow:-

“The complainant/respondent Ranjit Singh pleaded no objection if the FIR in question is quashed. Hence, para wise report is as under:-

- 1. From the statement of the IO, there is only* one person arraigned as accused in the FIR namely Avtar Singh.

- 2. From the statement of the IO, none of the accused has been declared P.O.*
- 3. From the statements of the parties, it appears that the settlement is genuine and is arrived at without any coercion or undue influence.*
- 4. As per statement of IO, the accused person is not involved in any other FIR.*
- 5. From the statement of IO, Ranjit Singh is the only complainant/victim in the present FIR.*

Submitted please,”

A perusal of the above report would show that it has been stated that the statements of the complainant as well as the petitioner have been recorded in the case and they have stated that the matter has been compromised and they have no objection in case the FIR is quashed. It is further stated that the statement of the complainant has been made voluntarily without any fear, coercion or pressure.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has further submitted that the petitioner was not declared proclaimed offender in the present case and is not involved in any other case.

Learned counsel for the State, as per instructions, has stated that the abovesaid facts are correct.

This Court has heard the learned counsel for the parties and has perused the file. After perusing the report submitted by the trial Court as well reply submitted on behalf of the State, this Court finds that the matter has been amicably settled between the petitioner and the complainant and the present FIR having been compromised deserves to be quashed. Since the matter has been settled and the parties have decided to live in peace, this Court feels that in order to secure the ends of justice, the criminal proceedings deserve to be quashed.

As per the Full Bench judgment of this Court in “Kulwinder Singh and others Vs State of Punjab”, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052, it is held that High Court has power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. to allow the compounding of non-compoundable offence and quash the prosecution where the High Court is of the opinion that the same is required to prevent the abuse of the process of law or otherwise to secure the ends of justice. This power of quashing is not confined to matrimonial disputes alone.

Hon'ble the Apex Court in the case of “Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab and another”, 2012 (4) RCR (Criminal) 543, had also observed that in order to secure the ends of justice or to prevent the abuse of process of Court, inherent power can be used by this Court to quash criminal proceedings in which a compromise has been effected. The relevant portion of para 57 of the said judgment is reproduced hereinbelow:-

“57. The position that emerges from the above discussion can be summarised thus: the power of the High Court in quashing a criminal proceeding or FIR or complaint in exercise of its inherent jurisdiction is distinct and different from the power given to a criminal court for compounding the offences under Section 320 of the Code. Inherent power is of wide plenitude with no statutory limitation but it has to be exercised in accord with the guideline engrafted in such power viz; (i) to secure the ends of justice or (ii) to prevent abuse of the process of any Court. XXX---XXX”

In view of what has been discussed hereinabove, the petition is allowed and FIR No. 68 dated 28.03.2017 under Sections 279, 337, 338 and 427 of the Indian Penal Code,1860 registered at Police Station Beas, District Amritsar (Rural) (Annexure P-1) and all subsequent proceedings arising on the basis of the compromise, are ordered to be quashed, qua the petitioner.
