

108 IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M-26091-2022

Date of decision: 09.06.2022

Lovepreet Singh

....Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

..Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KSHETARPAL

Present: Mr. Akbarjit Singh, Advocate for the petitioner

Mr. Amit Mehta, Sr. DAG, Punjab

ANIL KSHETARPAL, J (Oral)

After having failed to appear before the court, the presence of the petitioner is sought to be secured by issuing non-bailable warrants. The petitioner was granted the concession of bail, however, he failed to attend the hearing. The Supreme Court in Manish Jain vs. Haryana State Pollution Control Board 2020 (20) SCC 123, held that prayer for anticipatory bail is not maintainable because a person released on bail is in the constructive custody of law.

Learned counsel representing the petitioner submits that the petitioner would surrender before the trial court and apply for a fresh bail within a period of one week, from today.

Learned counsel representing the State has no objection.

In view thereof, the petition is disposed of while requesting the learned trial court to decide the application for grant of bail, within two days from the date the petitioner applies for the same.

Disposed of.

All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
