

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

201

CRM-M-24603-2020

Date of Decision: 02.03.2022

Indu Pathania

....Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE LALIT BATRA

Present: Mr. Jasraj Singh, Advocate for petitioner.

Mr. H.S.Sullar, Deputy Advocate General, Punjab.

Lalit Batra, J.(Oral)

Case has been taken up for hearing through Video Conferencing.

Report dated 13.08.2021 has been received from Trial Court, in terms of which, case arising out of instant FIR has already been decided on 28.07.2021.

Faced with this situation, learned counsel for petitioner submits that since main case has already been decided by Trial Court, instant petition seeking regular bail has become infructuous and may be disposed of as such.

In view of above, instant petition seeking regular bail by petitioner is disposed of having been rendered infructuous.
