At Chandigarh

CRM-M-28308-2022 (O&M)
Date of Decision:-6.7.2022

Karambir Singh @ Jug and another ... Petitioners

Versus

State of Punjab ... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE GURVINDER SINGH GILL

Present:- Mr. Amandeep Singh Manaise, Advocate for the petitioners.

GURVINDER SINGH GILL, J.(Oral)

The instant petition has been filed seeking grant of anticipatory bail as the petitioners apprehend their arrest consequent upon their bail having been cancelled by the Trial Court on account of their absence on 31.5.2022.

The aforestated position, wherein the petitioners have jumped bail do not warrant grant of anticipatory bail in view of judgment passed by this Court in CRM-M-39172 of 2021 titled Pawan Kumar Vs. State of Haryana and another decided on 21.9.2021.

It is, however, directed that in case the petitioners surrender before the Trial Court within 10 days from today and moves an application for grant of regular bail, the Trial Court shall consider the same expeditiously in view of observations made in concluding paragraph of judgment passed by this Court in Pawan Kumar's case (supra), which reads as under:

“12. Before parting with this order, it needs to be added that this Court cannot lose sight of the fact that there would be certain cases where an accused is unable to appear before the trial Court on account of genuine reasons, say on account of having noted the date incorrectly or on account of certain reasons which are beyond his control. In such cases, the accused can surrender before the trial Court and it is expected that the trial Courts would take a lenient view in genuine cases and decide the regular bail application expeditiously. In a given set of circumstances where the trial Court is satisfied that there were valid reasons for the absence of an accused and that he has surrendered at the shortest possible time, the trial Court can in fact dispose of the regular bail application on the very day the same is presented by accused upon his surrender. The trial Court, in its discretion, may also chose to grant interim bail, in fit cases, but only after surrender of accused.”

The petition stands disposed off accordingly.
