DEEPAK SIBAL, J. (Oral)

The matter has been taken up through video conferencing.

The present petition has been filed under Section 438 Cr.P.C. for the grant of anticipatory bail in FIR No.629 dated 19.11.2020 registered under Sections 406, 420 IPC at Police Station Sadar Thanesar, District Kurukshetra.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the petitioner's wife, on behalf of the petitioner, has compromised the dispute which is the subject matter of the afore FIR; in pursuance of such agreement a petition has been filed before this Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C. for quashing of the FIR in question in which notice has already been issued; seven cases of similar nature had been lodged against the petitioner; all the seven cases, have been compromised with the respective complainants and that the petitioner is also ready and willing to join and cooperate with the investigation.

Learned State counsel opposes the grant of bail to the petitioner on the ground that he is involved in seven cases of similar nature.

Though the petitioner faces seven criminal cases in which he is alleged to have committed compoundable offences, all these cases stand compromised. In the present case also, through a written compromise, the parties have resolved their dispute and in pursuance thereof, a petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C., has already been filed before this Court seeking therein quashing of the FIR in question in which notice has also been issued.

In the light of the above, subject to the petitioner's joining investigation as and when called by the investigating agency as also abiding by the other conditions provided under Section 438(2) Cr.P.C, in the event of his arrest in FIR No.629 dated 19.11.2020 registered under Sections 406, 420 IPC at Police Station Sadar Thanesar, District Kurukshetra, he shall be released on anticipatory bail to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer.

The petition is allowed in the above terms.
