HARINDER SINGH SIDHU, J.

Petitioner claims that on 25.3.2021 at about 9.30 am, when he was going to District Courts, Pathankot to attend court hearing, respondents No. 4 to 9 kidnapped him. They took him to village Pacho Chak in a Desire car, forced him to sign on some blank papers by pointing a gun on his head, robbed his ring and an amount of Rs. 28,000/-. He was kept confined till 3.00 pm. He was also threatened not to disclose about the incident to anyone. The same night, respondents No. 4 to 9 entered his house in his absence and tried to molest his wife. In this regard, his wife Jyoti Kumari has filed a criminal complaint before learned JMJC, Pathankot which is pending. She has also filed CRM-M-16602-2022 before this Court which is pending. The petitioner apprehends serious danger to his life at the hands of private respondents. In this regard, he has submitted a representation (Annexure P-1) to respondent No. 2 (Senior Superintendent of Police, Pathankot).

Without in anyway commenting on the veracity of allegations, this petition is disposed of with a direction to Senior Superintendent of Police, Pathankot (respondent No. 2) to look into representation (Annexure P-1) and take necessary action in accordance with law.
