VIKAS BAHL, J.(ORAL)

This is a criminal writ petition under Articles 226 and 227 of the Constitution of India for the issuance of a writ in the nature of Habeas Corpus.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that in pursuance of the orders passed by this Court, the detenue was found to be in illegal custody and has now been released.

Learned State counsel has submitted that the detenue was not in illegal custody.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that since the petitioner has been released, thus, the petitioner would not press the present petition but states that the petitioner would seek alternate remedy concerning the fact that the detenue was kept in illegal custody.

In view of the statement made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the present petition is disposed of as having been rendered infructuous.

It is needless to say that it would be open to the petitioner to seek appropriate legal remedy to agitate that the custody of the detenue was illegal. It would be open to the State to raise all pleas in the said proceedings.
