AND ORS

....RESPONDENTS

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANUPINDER SINGH GREWAL

Present: Mr.Ashish Nagar, Advocate for the petitioner.

ANUPINDER SINGH GREWAL, J (ORAL)

The petitioner has challenged the order dated 30.06.2022 whereby his services have been terminated.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner had rendered 30 years of service in the respondent-University. He had superannuated on 31.01.2018 and had been re-appointed initially for a period of three months, which was extended from time to time. The last extension had been granted on 02.06.2022 for a period of six months but his services have been terminated a month thereafter.

Issue notice to the respondents.

At the asking of the Court, Mr. M.K. Dogra, Advocate accepts notice on behalf of the respondents and submits that although the petitioner was granted extension in service for a period of six months but it was stipulated in the order that his services could be terminated even prior to the period of six months.

Heard.

The petitioner had superannuated from the respondent-University on 31.01.2018. He had been re-appointed on contractual basis initially for a period of three months which was later on extended. It was stipulated in the order that his services could be terminated even prior thereto. Therefore, I do not find any good ground to interfere while exercising writ jurisdiction.

However, the petitioner would be at liberty to avail alternative remedy, if otherwise permissible, in accordance with law.
