A cheque for a sum of Rs.1,59,700/-, which was issued by the revisionist-petitioner was dishonored on account of insufficient funds. This led to filing of petition under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 before the Court of JMIC, Hisar. The Court, after considering the matter in detail, found the petitioner to be guilty of the offence and so, he was ordered to be sentenced for a period of one year vide order dated 08.04.2015. This order was affirmed in appeal vide judgment dated 25.07.2017. This led to the filing of the present revision petition.

During the pendency of the revision petition, the petitioner was ordered to be released on bail subject to his paying a sum of Rs.1,59,700/- i.e. the cheque amount. The revisionist deposited a sum of Rs.1,39,700/- by way of demand draft and the remaining amount of Rs.20,000/- was paid to the complainant-respondent No.2 in cash. In compliance of the order dated 15.09.2017, another sum of Rs.23,955/- has been deposited for the purpose of compounding offence vide receipt dated 26.10.2017.

Today, before us, another sum of Rs.5,000/- in cash has been paid to the counsel representing the complainant in full & final settlement of the present revision petition.
