CM-15571-CWP-2022

Present application has been filed for recalling the order dated 23.09.2022, by which, the present writ petition was dismissed for non-prosecution.

Notice of the application to the counsel opposite.

Mr. R.S. Budhwar, learned Additional Advocate General, Haryana, who is present in Court, accepts notice on behalf of the respondents. He raises no objection for the grant of prayer as raised in the present application.

Keeping in view the averments made in the application, which is duly supported by an affidavit, the same is allowed. The order dated 23.09.2022 is recalled and the writ petition is restored to its original number and status.

Learned counsel for the petitioner argues that claim of the petitioner in the present petition is that his total length of service should be taken into account for computing his pensionary benefits as some of the service period has not been taken into account while computing the qualifying service, which grievance has been raised by the petitioner in the present petition. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that vide letter dated 04.02.2020, the revised pension case has been sent by the department to the Accountant General for consideration and for passing an appropriate order on that, and the respondents may kindly be directed to expedite the same and grant the petitioner whatever is found admissible to him.

Learned State counsel submits that in case, the re-consideration in terms of the letter dated 04.02.2020 is still pending consideration with the department, the same will be taken to its logical end within a period of eight weeks of the receipt of copy of this order and in case, petitioner is found entitled for any benefit after the said decision, the same will be extended to the petitioner within a further period of four weeks.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that keeping in view the above, the present petition may kindly be disposed of having been not pressed any further with liberty as prayed for.

Ordered accordingly.
