PANKAJ JAIN, J. (ORAL)

Learned counsel for the petitioner has brought to the notice of this Court order dated 11.02.2022 passed by the co-ordinate Bench of this Court in CRM-M-31525-2021 which was filed by Sandeep Kumar Puri (respondent in the present case). He further states that the issue relates to the same bail order. While disposing off the aforesaid criminal miscellaneous petition, this Court held that:-

“8. Furthermore during the course of arguments being addressed in this petition, this Court had put to the learned counsel for the petitioner, as to, what reasonable condition can become imposed upon the petitioner, as a pre condition, for his becoming completely benefited from the indulgence of default bail as became accorded to him. The learned counsel for the petitioner, on instructions meted to him by the latter, made a statement at the bar, that the petitioner is ready and willing to furnish personal as well as three surety bonds (of whom two sureties, should be local) comprised in a sum of Rs.10 lakhs each to the satisfaction of the learned trial Magistrate concerned. The above are both reasonable, and, just, and, would make fully efficacious the default bail granted to the petitioner. Obviously hence the other condition(s) as became imposed through the impugned order as made by the learned Additional Sessions Judge, Ludhiana, upon, the petitioner inasmuch as, his also furnishing FDR/bank guarantee comprising therein a sum of Rs.40 lakhs is quashed, and, set aside.”

Keeping in view the aforesaid facts, learned counsel for the petitioner states that the present petition has been rendered infructuous at this stage and may be disposed off as such.

Ordered accordingly.
