CRM-10746-2022

The present application has been filed for seeking withdrawal of the main case which is fixed for today.

On 29.3.2022, this Court had directed the State to verify as to whether during the pendency of the present petition, the petitioner has filed any application for bail or not.

Today, the learned State counsel has stated that it has been verified that no application for bail has been filed before the learned trial Court during the pendency of the present petition.

In view of the aforesaid position, the application is allowed. The petitioner is permitted to withdraw the present petition.

Main case

Dismissed as withdrawn.
