This petition has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution seeking directions to respondents to grant increments due to the petitioner from 2000 to 2015 admissible under the Rule 4.9 (b)(i) of Punjab Civil Service Rules Vol. I, Part I.

Learned State counsel, on instructions from Ms. Babita, Superintendent, Department of Social Security and Women & Child Development, Punjab, has apprised the Court that the relief claimed by the petitioner has already been granted vide order dated 09.12.2021. Thus, nothing survives in the present writ petition.

In view of above, this petition is disposed off as having been rendered infructuous.

However, it is made clear that in case anything survives, petitioner would be at liberty to move an appropriate application for revival of this writ petition within three months.
