ANIL KSHETARPAL, J(Oral)

The petitioners suit for grant of decree of permanent injunction from dispossessing him from plot No.74, was dismissed in default on 16.09.2013. On his application, the suit was ordered to be restored vide order dated 18.09.2019, subject to payment of cost of Rs.2,000/-. On the next date of hearing, the said cost was not tendered, therefore, the suit was dismissed for non-prosecution. His application for restoration has also been dismissed. It has come on record that the petitioner also filed a suit for grant of decree of declaration with a consequential relief of permanent injunction with respect to plot No.74, which was dismissed for non-prosecution. It has also come on record that the petitioner has recently filed yet another suit for grant of decree of permanent injunction with respect to plot No.74.

It is evident that the petitioner is indulging in multiple litigations.

Keeping in view the aforesaid facts, no ground to interfere is made out.

Dismissed.

All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
