VIVEK PURI, J. (ORAL)

The petitioner has preferred the revision petition against the order dated 28.02.2020 vide which the petition under Section 127 Cr.P.C. for alteration of the maintenance amount was dismissed. A sum of Rs. 15,000/- p.m. was awarded as maintenance in favour of the respondent in the earlier proceedings under Section 125 Cr.P.C. During the course of pendency of the proceedings in this Court, the matter was referred to Mediation and Conciliation Center in terms of the order dated 25.02.2021. As per the report of the Mediator, the dispute has been amicably settled between the parties. As per the terms and conditions, a sum of Rs. 9,50,000/- in lump sum has to be paid on account of permanent alimony to the respondent by the petitioner.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that a sum of Rs. 3 Lakhs has already been paid. The balance amount of Rs. 6,50,000/- has also been paid to the respondent vide two Demand Drafts bearing No. 593695 and 593696 dated 25.05.2022 drawn on State Bank of India in the sum of Rs. 3,50,000/- and Rs. 3,00,000/- respectively and the same have been handed over to learned counsel for the respondent.

Learned counsel for the respondent has not assailed the aforesaid factual aspect(s) and has acknowledged the fact of amicable settlement as well as the receipt of the entire amount of permanent alimony including the drafts.

Accordingly, learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the present petition be disposed of in view of the amicable settlement.

In view of the amicable settlement between the parties, the present petition is disposed of.
