....Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ARVIND SINGH SANGWAN

Present: Mr. Vikas Bali, Advocate for the petitioners.

ARVIND SINGH SANGWAN, J. (Oral)

Prayer in this petition is for transfer of Civil Suit No.984 of 2022 filed by respondent No.1, pending in the Court of Civil Judge (Jr. Divn.), Patiala to the competent Court of jurisdiction at Jalandhar.

Learned counsel for the petitioners has argued that on account of matrimonial discord, petitioner No.1 has filed a petition under Section 125 Cr.P.C. and a petition/complaint under the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act at Jalandhar. It is further submitted that the petitioners are facing great difficulty in prosecuting the petition filed by respondent No.1, as there is a distance of about 155 kms between Jalandhar and Patiala.

Learned counsel has further contended that petitioner No.1 is having a minor child, who is living in her care and custody and she is facing difficulty to defend the case, as she has to travel from Jalandhar to Patiala.

Learned counsel has relied upon the judgments Sumita Singh Vs. Kumar Sanjay, 2002 SC 396 and Rajani Kishor Pardeshi Vs. Kishor Babulal Pardeshi, 2005(12) SCC 237, wherein the Hon'ble Supreme Court observed that while deciding the transfer application, the Courts are required to give more weightage and consideration to the convenience of the female litigants and transfer of legal proceedings from one Court to another should ordinarily be allowed, taking into consideration their convenience and the Courts should desist from putting female litigants under undue hardships."

Learned counsel has further relied upon N.C.V. Aishwarya Vs. A.S. Saravana Karthik Sha, 2022 Live Law (SC) 627, wherein the Hon'ble Supreme Court held as under: - "The cardinal principle for exercise of power under Section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure is that the ends of justice should demand the transfer of the suit, appeal or other proceeding. In matrimonial matters, wherever Courts are called upon to consider the plea of transfer, the Courts have to take into consideration the economic soundness of both the parties, the social strata of the spouses and their behavioural pattern, their standard of life prior to the marriage and subsequent thereto and the circumstances of both the parties in eking out their livelihood and under whose protective umbrella they are seeking their sustenance to life. Given the prevailing socioeconomic paradigm in the Indian society, generally, it is the wife's convenience which must be looked at while considering transfer.

Further, when two or more proceedings are pending in different Courts between the same parties which raise common question of fact and law, and when the decisions in the cases are interdependent, it is desirable that they should be tried together by the same Judge so as to avoid multiplicity in trial of the same issues and conflict of decisions.”

It is well settled that while considering the transfer of a matrimonial dispute/case at the instance of the wife, the Court is to consider family condition of the wife, custody of the minor child, economic condition of the wife, her physical health and earning capacity of the husband and most important, convenience of the wife i.e. she cannot travel alone without assistance of a male member of her family, connectivity of the place to and fro from her place of residence as well as bearing of the litigation charges and travelling expenses.

After hearing the counsel for the petitioners, considering the fact that issuance of notice to the respondents has the consequences of staying further proceedings before the trial Court, otherwise the petitioners will have to bear the litigation expenses and transportation expenses and in view of the fact that even in case notice of motion is issued, even the respondents have to bear the litigation expenses and in view of the judgments in Sumita Singh's case (supra), Rajani Kishor Pardeshi's case (supra) and N.C.V. Aishwarya's case (supra) passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court, this Court deem it appropriate to allow the present petition, subject to the following conditions:-

- 1. The Civil Suit No.984 of 2022 filed by respondent No.1, pending before the Civil Judge (Jr. Divn.), Patiala will be transferred to the competent Court of jurisdiction at Jalandhar.*
- 2. The District Judge, Jalandhar, will assign the said petition to the competent Court of jurisdiction.*
- 3. The Civil Judge (Jr. Divn.), Patiala is directed to transfer all the record pertaining to the aforesaid case(s) to District Judge, Jalandhar.*
- 4. The parties are directed to appear before the District Judge, Jalandhar within a period of 01 month from today.*

However, liberty is granted to respondent No.1 to revive this petition, if he intent to contest the same, provided that:-

- (a) He will clear all arrears of maintenance amount, if any, in terms of a petition filed by petitioner No.1 either under Section 125 Cr.P.C. or Section 12 of the Domestic Violence Act or Section 24 of the Hindu Marriage Act.*
- (b) He will file an affidavit giving undertaking to pay Rs.1,000/-* per day, to petitioner No.1 for attending the Court proceedings at Patiala, on each and every date of hearing.

(c) He will bring a demand draft of Rs.25,000/- towards the litigation expenses of petitioner No.1 to pursue the case at Patiala, in case, opt to contest this petition.

Present petition is disposed of accordingly.
