CRM No.33095 of 2022

At the very outset, learned counsel for the applicant-petitioner seeks permission to withdraw the instant application.

Learned State counsel has no objection for the same.

Accordingly, the application in hand stands dismissed for having been withdrawn.

CRM-M No.35045 of 2022

After arguing for a while, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks permission to withdraw the present petition while submitting that the appeal, preferred by the petitioner, is scheduled to be listed before the Appellate Court concerned on 06.10.2022 and the petitioner would surrender there on or before the said date and would move an application for seeking the relief of bail/suspension of sentence and he prays that the Appellate Court be directed to decide the application of the petitioner within some specific time frame.

Learned State counsel has no objection to the above-discussed submission as well as the prayer as made by learned counsel for the petitioner.

Resultantly, the petition in hand stands dismissed for having been withdrawn with a direction to the Appellate Court concerned that in case the petitioner surrenders before it on or before the afore-said date and moves the above-referred application, the same be decided, in accordance with law, in the given set of the facts and circumstances of the case, within a period of two (02) days thereafter.
