CWP-17267-2022

In this petition, the petitioner alleges that one seat in the Department of Hematology in Fortis Memorial Research Institute, Gurugram, has fallen vacant on account of the resignation tendered by Dr. Adamya Gupta, who got All India Rank 74 and was allotted that seat during 1st round of Counseling. It is submitted that inspite of the said seat falling vacant, the authorities while issuing programme for conducting Special Mop-up round II, have not included this vacant seat in the counselling process. It is further submitted that the petitioner was desirous of obtaining this seat and had this seat been included in the Special Mop-up round II, she would have participated in the counselling. She, however, has not filed any representation/request to this effect before the competent authority. Faced with this situation, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner shall do so during the course of the day.

To this, learned counsel for respondents No.1 and 2 submits that in case, the petitioner does so, the authorities will take a decision thereon within a period of one week thereafter.

In view of the aforesaid statements of learned counsel for the parties and taking the same on record, the petition is disposed of in terms thereof.
