ARVIND SINGH SANGWAN J. (Oral)

Prayer in this petition is for transfer of the petition filed under Section 13 of the Hindu Marriage Act, pending in the Family Court, Sonapat to the competent Court of jurisdiction at Rohtak.

Vide order dated 27.10.2020, the following order was passed:-

“Petitioner-wife has filed this petition for transfer of case titled as 'Rajiv Hooda Versus Richa Hooda' under Section 13 of Hindu Marriage Act filed by respondent-her husband from the Court of learned Additional District and Sessions Judge, Principal Judge, Family Court, Sonipat to the Court of competent jurisdiction at Rohtak.

The marriage of petitioner with respondent was solemnized on 26.1.2001. One son was born to them on 30.5.2003. It is stated that petitioner is serving as PRT teacher in Model Town, Rohtak. Since from the very beginning, petitioner was humiliated by respondent and his family members on account of dowry. It is stated that petitioner out of her hard earned money purchased a plot at Rohtak. Petitioner is presently residing in ground floor of house whereas respondent is residing at first floor. On account of cruel attitude of respondent, petitioner has filed petition under Section 13 of Hindu Marriage Act which is pending at Rohtak Courts. Respondent on the other hand solely with a view to harass the petitioner has filed a petition under Section 13 of Hindu Marriage Act at Sonipat Courts which is at a distance of 50 kilometers from Rohtak. As petitioner is serving as a teacher in Rohtak, it is very difficult for her to attend the Court at Sonipat. Moreover, respondent is residing with petitioner in the same house at first floor.

Notice of motion for 22.12.2020.”

Counsel for the petitioner has argued that on account of a matrimonial discord, the respondent/husband has filed the petition under Section 13 of the Hindu Marriage Act, as a counter-blast, before the Principal Judge, Family Court, Sonapat.

Counsel for the petitioner has also argued that on account of a petition filed by the respondent/husband, the petitioner is facing great difficulty in prosecuting the said case as there is a distance of about 50 Kms from Rohtak to Sonapat.

Counsel for the petitioner has relied upon the judgments “Sumita Singh vs Kumar Sanjay”, 2002 SC 396 and “Rajani Kishor Pardeshi vs Kishor Babulal Pardeshi”, 2005(12) SCC 237, wherein the Hon’ble Supreme Court has observed that while deciding the transfer application, the Courts are required to give more weightage and consideration to the convenience of the female litigants and transfer of legal proceedings from one Court to another should ordinarily be allowed, taking into consideration their convenience and the Courts should desist from putting female litigants under undue hardships.”

Counsel for the petitioner has also relied upon the judgment “N.C.V. Aishwarya vs A.S. Saravana Karthik Sha,” 2022

Live Law (SC) 627, wherein the Hon'ble Supreme Court has observed as under:-

9. The cardinal principle for exercise of power under section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure is that the ends of justice should demand the transfer of the suit, appeal or other proceeding. In matrimonial matters, wherever Courts are called upon to consider the plea of transfer, the Courts have to take into consideration the economic soundness of both the parties, the social strata of the spouses and their behavioural pattern, their standard of life prior to the marriage and subsequent thereto and the circumstances of both the parties in eking out their livelihood and under whose protective umbrella they are seeking their sustenance to life. Given the prevailing socioeconomic paradigm in the Indian society, generally, it is the wife's convenience which must be looked at while considering transfer.

10. Further, when two or more proceedings are pending in different Courts between the same parties which raise common question of fact and law, and when the decisions in the cases are interdependent, it is desirable that they should be tried together by the same Judge so as to avoid multiplicity in trial of the same issues and conflict of decisions.”

It is well settled that while considering the transfer of a matrimonial dispute/case at the instance of the wife, the Court is to consider the family condition of the wife, the custody of the minor child, economic condition of the wife, her physical health and earning capacity of the husband and most important the convenience of the wife i.e. she cannot travel alone without assistance of a male member of her family, connectivity of the place to and fro from her place of residence as well as bearing of the litigation charges and travelling expenses.

As per the office report, the respondent has been served, however, there is no representation on his behalf.

After hearing the counsel for the petitioner, considering the fact that the petitioner/wife will have to bear the litigation expenses and transportation expenses and in view of the judgments i.e. Sumita Singh's case (supra), Rajani Kishor Pardeshi's case (supra) and N.C.V. Aishwarya's case (supra) passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court, this Court deem it appropriate to allow the present petition, subject to the following conditions:-

1. The petition filed under Section 13 of the Hindu Marriage Act, pending before the Family Court, Sonapat will be transferred to the competent Court of jurisdiction at Rohtak.
2. The District Judge, Rohtak, will assign the said petition to the competent Court of jurisdiction.
3. The Family Court, Sonapat is directed to transfer all the record pertaining to the aforesaid case to District Judge, Rohtak.
4. The parties are directed to appear before the trial Court, Rohtak, within a period of 01 month from today.
5. The Family Court, Rohtak will make all endeavour to refer the case before the Mediation and Conciliation Centre for exploring the possibility of some amicable settlement between the parties.
6. The Court concerned, where the litigation pending between the parties, will accommodate them with one date in one calendar month.

Disposed of.
