JAISHREE THAKUR.J (Oral)

The instant writ petition has been filed seeking to challenge the order dated 27.07.2017 (Annexure P-13) on the ground that the petitioner was discharged from service without adequate reasons.

In brief, the facts are that the petitioner, who had applied pursuant to the advertisement issued to fill up 7416 posts of male and female Constables in District Police Cadre and Armed Police Cadre of Punjab Police, was declared successful and issued an appointment letter. Thereafter, the petitioner was medically examined and was appointed as a Constable and was allotted No.36/780. The petitioner after having joined service, was discharged on 04.01.2017 without adequate notice or an opportunity of hearing. He approached this Court by way of CWP No.3106 of 2017, which petition was allowed vide order dated 08.03.2017 and he again joined his service and was allotted a new number i.e. 36/798 by the respondent vide order dated 16.03.2017. The petitioner was served with a show cause notice dated 31.03.2017 by respondent No.3 and without giving him adequate opportunity, he was terminated from service on 27.07.2017 (Annexure P-13).

Pursuant to notice of motion having been issued on 19.09.2017, appearance has been caused on behalf of the respondent-State who submits that merit list has now been revived and the name of the petitioner has been reflected at serial No.1267 in the merit list of General Category in Armed Police Cadre. The final result has also been uploaded on the official website of the department on 24.05.2022.

In view of above, this Court finds that the relief as sought for has been allowed and consequently, the instant writ petition has rendered infructuous and is disposed of as such. However, leaving it open to the petitioner to approach this Court afresh, should the appointment order not follow.
