Present writ petition has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution, inter alia, for directing the respondents to regularize the services of petitioners.

Learned counsel, on instructions from petitioners, submits that necessary reliefs claimed in the present petition have already been granted in their favour by the competent authority and as such, as on today, nothing survives for adjudication; therefore, the same be disposed off.

Ordered accordingly.

Since the main writ petition is being disposed off, therefore, pending misc. application(s), if any, shall stand disposed off.
