3. Pursuant to the aforesaid order, report from JMIC, Hoshiarpur dated 05.12.2022 has been received, which is taken on record. As per the report, the trial Court has recorded as follows:-

“..On the basis of the statements suffered by the parties in the Court, it appears that the compromise between Complainant

Dogar Singh as well as accused Palwinderjeet Kaur herself and on behalf of accused Ashwani Kumar (being special power of attorney holder), is genuine, voluntary without any threat or coercion. The above said FIR was registered against two accused persons namely Ashwani Kumar and Palwinderjit Kaur. Neither the above said accused have been declared as proclaimed offender(s), nor any PO proceedings are pending against them. As per statement of Investigating Officer, the above said accused are no involved in any other FIR. In the present FIR, Lal Dev and Dogar Singh are victims/complainant. It is submitted that in compliance of the order dated 28-10-2022, petitioner has desposited cost of Rs.1,00,000/- in DLSA, Hoshiarpur and copy of receipt in this regard be placed on file. The parties were identified by the learned counsel for the parties”

4. Ld. Counsel appearing for respondent No.2 admits the fact of parties having compromised and states that he has no objection in case the FIR and all proceedings subsequent thereto against the petitioners are quashed.

5. Similarly Ld. State Counsel has stated no objection in case the FIR is quashed based upon the compromise.

6. I have heard Ld. Counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the records of the case.

7. After considering judgment rendered by the Apex Court in Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another, 2012(10) SCC 303, State of Madhya Pradesh vs. Laxmi Narayan and others (2019) 5 SCC 688, Kulwinder Singh & others vs. State of Punjab & another, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Ram Gopal and another vs. State of Madhya

Pradesh, 2021(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 322 (Criminal Appeal No.1489 of 2012 decided on 29th of September, 2021), the proposition of law that emerges from the aforesaid decisions rendered by Apex Court and this Court is :

- (a) Power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. vested with this Court is not affected by Section 320 of the Code.
- (b) However, wider the power greater the caution.
- (c) The underlining principle while exercising such power is that it can be invoked to quash the proceedings recognizing compromise between the parties in the matters which are overwhelmingly and predominantly of civil character like commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes.
- (d) The said power is not to be exercised in the prosecutions involving heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society.
- (e) Section 482 Cr.P.C. casts duty upon the High Court to advance interest of justice as well. It is in recognition of this duty casted upon the High Court, that Apex Court held that the High Court would not refuse to quash FIR under Section 307 merely because FIR finds mention thereof. High Court can assess nature of injuries sustained, whether such injuries inflicted on vital/delicate parts of the body/nature of weapons used etc.
- (f) Such exercise at the hands of High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and chargesheet is filed/charges framed during the trial. Such exercise cannot be carried out while the matter is still under investigation.

(g) While quashing FIR in non-compoundable offences even which are of private in nature, High Court is required to consider antecedents of the accused, conduct of the accused and whether he was absconding or whether he has managed the complainant to enter into a compromise.

8. Thus, keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to exercise jurisdiction vested u/s 482 Cr.P.C. to quash the FIR as :-

- (i) The present matter does not fall within the exceptions as carved out in Laxmi Narayan's case (supra).
- (ii) The offences are of private nature.
- (iii) The parties have compromised.
- (iv) As per the report received the compromise is said to be voluntary in its nature.
- (v) Complainant/victim has entered into compromise on his own volition.

9. Consequently, the petition is allowed. FIR No.5 dated 31.03.2018, registered for offences punishable under Sections 420, 471, 120-B of the Indian Penal Code, 1860, at Police Station NRI Hoshiarpur, (Annexure P-1) and all proceedings arising therefrom, are, hereby, quashed qua the petitioners.
