FIR No.	Dated	Police Station	Sections
143	24.04.2015	Rajendra Park, Gurugram	420, 406, 403, 120-B IPC

Seeking quashing of proclamation order dated 02.04.2016 (P-2), passed by the Ld. Judicial Magistrate, Ist Class, Gurgaon, the accused has come up before this court under Section 482 CrPC.

2. The accused could not be served through the ordinary process, including summons, bailable warrants, and even non-bailable warrants. The concerned court finally proceeded against the petitioner under section 82 of CrPC and declared the petitioner a proclaimed offender vide aforesaid order.
3. After issuance of proclamation, the matter got settled between the parties.
4. The petitioner explains that due to a misunderstanding of dates between him and his counsel, he could not appear. In the case's factual background, I am satisfied with the explanation offered. The primary matter stands compromised; there is no justification for continuing the proceedings. Consequently, in the facts and circumstances peculiar to this case the petition is allowed, the above captioned impugned order dated 02.04.2016 (Annexure P-2) is quashed. All pending warrants stand canceled, and further proceedings quashed.

Petition allowed. All pending applications, if any, stand closed.
