Amar Singh and another Vs. Hazoor Singh and others

Present:- None for the appellants.

Mr. Rajneesh Malhotra, Advocate for respondent No.3-ICICI Lombard Gen. Ins. Co. Ltd.

Mr. Ajay Sharma, DAG, Haryana.

The present appeal has been filed by the claimant-Amar Singh etc. seeking enhancement of the compensation.

The facts are that on account of death of Pooran Singh in an accident that had taken place on 26.08.2008, the claimants were awarded a compensation of Rs.20,14,188/- vide award dated 09.03.2010 passed by MACT, Sonapat.

The Insurance Company-ICICI Lombard Gen. Ins. Co. Ltd. filed an appeal bearing FAO No.4550 of 2010 against the said impuned award, wherein the claimants also filed Cross-Objection No.64-CII of 2011. The said appeal filed by the Insurance Company was dismissed on 24.09.2013, wherein the cross-objection was allowed enhancing the compensation from Rs.20,14,188/- to Rs.23,29,424/- with simple interest @ 9% per annum from the date of filing the petition till the date of realization thereof.

In view of the above facts that the grievances of the claimants have been redressed by virtue of cross-objections as referred above, filed by them, in the said appeal filed by the Insurance Company.

Accordingly, the present appeal seeking the same relief stands dismissed as infructuous.
