CM-16728-CWP-218

Nobody has come to press the present application.

Accordingly, the same is disposed of having been not pressed.

CWP-19567-2018

Learned counsel for the petitioner agreed that the formation of the fresh time table for plying the buses is already under consideration with the respondent-State and hence, the petitioner be allowed to approach the respondent-State by filing appropriate representation in case, the petitioner has any grievance with regard to the time table issued to the petitioner, which is being operated for the plying of the buses keeping in view the permit, which the petitioner have.

Keeping in view the above, the present petition is disposed of with liberty to the petitioner that in case the petitioner has any grievance with regard to the time table being operated by the respondent-State for plying the buses, the petitioner can approach the respondent-State by filing appropriate representation, which grievance will be considered by the respondents while finalizing the time table.

Ordered accordingly.
