VIKAS BAHL, J.(ORAL)

This is a petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C. praying for quashing of FIR No.837 dated 21.12.2017 registered under Sections 323,34,506 IPC at Police Station City Sonipat (Annexure P-1), along with all other consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise dated 23.07.2021 (Annexure P-2).

On 23.08.2022, this Court was pleased to pass the following order:-

“This is a petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C. praying for quashing of FIR No.837 dated 21.12.2017 registered under Sections 323,34,506 IPC at Police Station City Sonipat, Haryana and all other consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise.

Learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that all the persons concerned are party to the compromise. It is further submitted that earlier respondent no.2 was not ready to give the statement but now she is ready to give statement in support of compromise before the trial Court.

Notice of motion for 26.09.2022.

On the asking of the Court, Mr. Dhruv Shah, AAG,

Haryana, accepts notice on behalf of respondent no.1.

The parties are directed to appear before the Illaqa Magistrate/trial Court for recording their statements qua compromise within a period of 25 days.

The Illaqa Magistrate/trial Court is directed to submit a report on or before the next date of hearing containing the following information:-

- 2. Whether any accused is proclaimed offender?*
- 3. Whether the compromise is genuine, voluntary and without any coercion or undue influence?*

- 5. The trial Court is also directed to record the statement of the Investigating Officer as to how many victims/complainants are there in the FIR.*

In pursuance to the said order, a report has been submitted by Chief Judicial Magistrate, Sonapat. The relevant portion of the said report is reproduced hereinbelow:-

“In these circumstances, it is concluded that the statements of the parties are bona fide and are not result of any threat, duress or coercion in any manner and hence compromise effected between the parties is genuine, voluntarily and without any coercion or undue influence and is valid one.

ii) In the abovesaid FIR No.837 dated 21.12.2017 under Sections 323,506/34 of IPC, PS City, Sonapat, IO of the present case appeared and suffered a statement, which is Annexure-V (Annexed herewith in original). As per statement of I.O./HC Anil No.1630/SPT, posted in PS city, Sonapat, in the present case bearing FIR No.837 dated 21.12.2017 under Sections 323,506/34 of IPC, PS City, Sonapat, accused Sahil and Harsha are the only accused arrayed in the present FIR. There are five other cases registered against them in his knowledge and Aanchal is the only victim/complainant in the present FIR. There is no proclaimed person in FIR No.837 dated 21.12.2017.”

A perusal of the above said report would show that the petitioners and complainant/respondent No.2 have appeared and suffered statements with respect to the compromise, which have been found to be voluntary, genuine, and out of free will.

Learned counsel for the petitioners has further submitted that the petitioners were not declared proclaimed offenders in the present case.

Learned State counsel has stated that he has no objection in case the FIR is quashed on the basis of compromise qua the petitioners.

Learned counsel for respondent No.2 has again reiterated that the matter has been settled and the said compromise is in the interest of all the persons and would help in bringing out peace and amity between the two parties.

This Court has heard the learned counsel for the parties and has perused the file.

After perusing the report submitted by the trial Court, this Court finds that the matter has been amicably settled between the petitioners and the complainant. Since the matter has been settled and the parties have decided to live in peace, this Court feels that in order to secure the ends of justice, the criminal proceedings deserve to be quashed.

As per the Full Bench judgment of this Court in “Kulwinder Singh and others Vs State of Punjab”, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052, it is held that High Court has power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. to allow the compounding of non-compoundable offence and quash the prosecution where the High Court is of the opinion that the same is required to prevent the abuse of the process of law or otherwise to secure the ends of justice. This power of quashing is not confined to matrimonial disputes alone.

Hon'ble the Apex Court in the case of “Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab and another”, 2012 (4) RCR (Criminal) 543, had also observed that in order to secure the ends of justice or to prevent the abuse of process of Court, inherent power can be used by this Court to quash criminal proceedings in which a compromise has been effected. The relevant portion of para 57 of the said judgment is reproduced hereinbelow:-

“57. The position that emerges from the above discussion can be summarised thus: the power of the High Court in quashing a criminal proceeding or FIR or complaint in exercise of its inherent jurisdiction is distinct and different from the power given to a criminal court for compounding the offences under Section 320 of the Code. Inherent power is of wide plenitude with no statutory limitation but it has to be exercised in accord with the guideline engrafted in such power viz; (i) to secure the ends of justice or (ii) to prevent abuse of the process of any Court.”

In view of what has been discussed hereinabove, this petition is allowed and FIR No.837 dated 21.12.2017 registered under Sections 323,34,506 IPC at Police Station City Sonipat (Annexure P-1) along with all consequential proceedings emanating therefrom are ordered to be quashed, qua the petitioners.
