A perusal of the above statements would show that the appellants/claimants as well as the Insurance Company have compromised the matter by stating that a compensation of Rs.70,000/- over and above the amount already awarded by the Tribunal, will be paid by the Insurance Company to the appellant/claimant.

Counsel appearing for the respondent-Insurance Company has further stated that the said amount would be paid by the Insurance Company to appellant within a period of 6 weeks from today, failing which the interest @ 9% p.a. shall follow from the date of the settlement before the Lok Adalat till the date of payment.

Insurance Company has further stated that a cheque amounting to Rs.70,000/- in the name of appellant, will be deposited with the office of the Lok Adalat of this High Court on or before 26.09.2022, failing which the interest @ 9% p.a. shall follow at this amount till the payment is made from the date of this order.

In view of the above, we are of the opinion that the compromise is genuine and bona fide and in the best interest of the claimant as well as all the parties concerned.

Accordingly, the appeal is disposed of as having been compromised and the compromise shall be treated as part and parcel of the award, and the order of the Tribunal, stands modified in terms of the said compromise. The parties will be bound by the said compromise.

The concerned officer of the Lok Adalat Branch/Office shall issue proper receipt after receiving the Cheque/Demand Draft to learned counsel/representative of the respondent-Insurance Company. The appellant(s)/counsel for appellant(s) may collect the cheque from the office of the Lok Adalat.
