HARSIMRAN SINGH SETHI, J. (ORAL)

By this common order, all the writ petitions, the details of which have been given in the heading, are being disposed of as same question of law has been raised in all these petitions. For the facility of this order, the facts are being taken from CWP No.20554 of 2018.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner, who was appointed as extension lecturer, is not in service for the last four years and her services were discontinued due to less workload. Learned counsel further argues that during the pendency of the petition, various instructions have been issued for accommodating the extension lecturers, if they fulfill the requirements as prescribed under those instructions and one such instruction is dated 04.03.2020.

Learned counsel submits that the petitioner will be satisfied at this stage in case the respondents consider her case in pursuance to the said instruction dated 04.03.2020 and pass appropriate order, whether the petitioner can be adjusted as Extension Lecturer at this stage or not.

Learned State counsel submits that the claim of the petitioner will be re-evaluated in pursuance to the instructions dated 04.03.2020, which has come into existence after relieving of the petitioner, for adjustment and in case, the same is found feasible, the petitioner will be granted the benefits and he further submits that the appropriate order will be passed in this regard within a period of two months from the date of receipt of this order.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that keeping in view the aforesaid statement of learned State counsel, the present petition may kindly be disposed of as having been not pressed any further at this stage.

Ordered accordingly.

A photocopy of this order be placed on the files of all the writ petitions mentioned in the heading.
