IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M-37863-2022

Date of decision : 27.09.2022

Parmjit Singh

...Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE VIKAS BAHL

Present: Mr. Vijay Lath, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Ramdeep Partap Singh, Sr. DAG, Punjab.

VIKAS BAHL, J. (ORAL)

Prayer in the present petition is for grant of regular bail to the petitioner in FIR No.95 dated 03.06.2022 registered under Sections 420, 465, 467, 468, 471 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 at Police Station City Rupnagar, District Rupnagar, Punjab.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner is in custody since 04.06.2022 and the challan has already been presented and there are 14 prosecution witnesses, out of which, none have been examined as yet and thus, the conclusion of trial is likely to take time. It is further submitted that even as per the FIR, there is no allegation that the complainant had paid any money to the present petitioner. It is contended that the present case is triable by the Magistrate and that the entire case is based on documents and thus, no purpose would be served by keeping the present petitioner in further incarceration.

On the other hand, learned State counsel has opposed the present petition for grant of regular bail to the petitioner and has submitted that the petitioner is involved in other cases also and thus, is a habitual offender.

Learned counsel for the petitioner, in rebuttal to the abovesaid argument, has submitted that the petitioner is on bail in the abovesaid cases and has relied upon the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in “Maulana Mohd. Amir Rashadi vs. State of U.P. and another”, reported as 2012 (2) SCC 382 to contend that the facts and circumstances of the present case are to be seen and the bail application of the petitioner cannot be rejected solely on the ground that the petitioner is involved in another case. The relevant portion of the said judgment is reproduced hereinbelow:-

“As observed by the High Court, merely on the basis of criminal antecedents, the claim of the second respondent cannot be rejected. In other words, it is the duty of the Court to find out the role of the accused in the case in which he has been charged and other circumstances such as possibility of fleeing away from the jurisdiction of the Court etc.”

This Court has heard the learned counsel for the parties and has perused the paper book.

In the present case, the petitioner is in custody since 04.06.2022 and the challan has already been presented and out of 14 prosecution witnesses, none have been examined as yet and thus, the conclusion of trial is likely to take time. The present case is triable by the Magistrate and the entire case is based on documents and thus, no purpose would be served by keeping the present petitioner in further incarceration.

Keeping in view the abovesaid facts and circumstances as well as law laid down in Maulana Mohd. Amir Rashadi's case (Supra), the present petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on regular bail on his furnishing bail/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court/Duty Magistrate, subject to him not being required in any other case.

However, it is made clear that in case, any act is done by the petitioner to threaten the complainant or any of the witnesses, then it would be open to the State to move an application for cancellation of bail granted to the petitioner.

Nothing stated above shall be construed as an expression of opinion on the merits of the case and the trial would proceed independently of the observations made in the present case which are only for the purpose of adjudicating the present bail application.
