JAISHREE THAKUR, J. (Oral)

Learned counsel for the applicant-respondent No.6 would pray for recalling/reviewing order dated 25.07.2022 by contending that the said order has been passed without affording an opportunity of hearing to the applicant-respondent No.6-Surender Singh @ Surender Kumar, whose interest would be adversely affected. However, this Court is not inclined to allow review or modification in the order dated 25.07.2022 considering the fact that an innocuous order has been passed directing the authorities to decide the matter, which was listed for 26.08.2022 i.e. today. This Court does not see how any prejudice is going to be caused to the applicant-respondent No.6 herein. Applicant-respondent No.6 would be at liberty to take all pleas available to him before the authorities concerned and defend any order, which is in his favour.

While disposing of the writ petition CWP No.15875 of 2022 in limine, only facts as narrated had been stated and no opinion has been given on the merits of the case. Therefore, there would be no occasion for this Court to modify or recall its order dated 25.07.2022, wherein a simpliciter direction has been given to decide the case on the date so fixed.

Consequently, the review application is dismissed.
