..Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana and others

...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE HARSIMRAN SINGH SETHI

Present: Mr. J.K. Goel, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Kiran Pal Singh, AAG, Haryana.

Mr. Vinod Bhardwaj, Advocate for respondent No.4.

Harsimran Singh Sethi, J. (Oral)

In the present writ petition, the grievance of the petitioner is that the total length of service rendered by him, has not been taken into account by the respondents as qualifying service for computing his pensionary benefits and further that the regular pay scale has not been given to the petitioner of the post of Principal on which post, he was working.

After notice of motion, respondents have appeared.

Learned counsel for respondent No.4 submits that for the benefits, for which, the petitioner is entitled for, except the revision of pay scale, have already been extended to him and in case, the petitioner has any other grievance left, apart from the revised pay scale, the petitioner can approach the authority concerned by filing a representation, which will be decided by the respondent No.4 in accordance with law by way of passing a speaking order.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner will approach the respondent No.4 on 02.08.2022 at 11.a.m by way of submitting a representation for the grant of benefits including the interest on the delayed release of the payments.

Learned counsel for the respondent No.4 submits that the grievance, which will be raised by the petitioner by way of representation will be taken into consideration and an appropriate order in accordance with law, will be passed within a period of two months from the date of receipt of said representation.

It will be appreciated that while passing order on the representation of the petitioner, a settled principle of law in respect of the grant of interest will also be taken into consideration and in case the delay in the release of the benefits is attributable to the respondents, the petitioner be also granted interest on the payments, which have been released or will be released to the petitioner hereinafter.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that keeping in view the above, the present writ petition may kindly be disposed off having been not pressed any further at this stage.

Ordered accordingly.
