ASHOK KUMAR VERMA, J. (ORAL)

Through this petition under Articles 226 of the Constitution of India, prayer has been made for issuance of direction to respondents No.2 and 3 to protect the life and liberty of the petitioners from danger at the hands of respondents No.4 to 8 as they have solemnized marriage against the wishes of their parents.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that both the petitioners are major and have decided to marry with each other. However, parents and other relatives of petitioner No.1 are against their marriage. Now, they are living in a live-in-relationship against the wishes of respondents No.4 to 8 and have sought protection to their life and liberty. They apprehend danger at the hands of respondents No.4 to 8. Therefore, they have submitted a representation dated 17.08.2022 (Annexure P-3) to respondent No.2-Senior Superintendent of Police, U.T. Chandigarh.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has filed affidavit of petitioner No.1 to the effect that now the petitioners are residing at House No.4917 instead of House No.4193 as mentioned in the petition.

I have heard the learned counsel for the parties.

Article 21 of the Constitution stipulates protection of life and liberty to every citizen and that no person shall be deprived of his life and personal liberty except according to procedure established by law. It is the bounden duty of the State as per the Constitutional obligations cast upon it to protect the life and liberty of every citizen.

In view of the above discussion, present petition is disposed of with a direction to respondent No.2-Senior Superintendent of Police, U.T. Chandigarh, to decide the representation dated 17.08.2022 (Annexure P-3), moved by the petitioners in accordance with law and grant protection to them, if any threat to their life and liberty is perceived.

It is, however, clarified that in case there is any criminal case registered against the petitioners, this order shall not be construed as an impediment for the law enforcing agency to proceed against the petitioners in accordance with law.
