MAHABIR SINGH SINDHU, J.

Present petition has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution for quashing the clause of not considering cases of the employees for promotion, who possess educational qualification through distance education from outside Universities other than Punjab State. Further prayer is for directing the respondents to consider the case of the petitioner for promotion as Lecturer as he possesses the qualification of M.A. English.

At the outset, learned Counsel on instructions submits that grievance of the petitioner has been redressed and thus, present petition is rendered infructuous.

Ordered accordingly.
