Learned counsel for the petitioner states that false allegations of maltreatment and harassment have been levelled by the complainant against the petitioner and his family members. The parents and brother of the petitioner have been granted anticipatory bail.

In terms of the order dated October 11, 2021, the matter was referred to the Mediation and Conciliation Center of this Court and it was directed that no coercive steps be taken against the petitioner.

Learned State counsel submits that in the instant case the petitioner is yet to join the investigation. However, learned counsel for the complainant has opposed the interim protection granted to the petitioner.

Adjourned to 13.09.2022.

Meanwhile, the petitioner shall join the investigation and would come present as and when called for and in the event of arrest, the petitioner shall be admitted to interim bail on his furnishing personal and surety bonds to the satisfaction of Arresting/Investigating Officer. The petitioner shall also abide by the conditions as specified under Section 438(2) Cr.P.C..”

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that in pursuance of interim directions, the petitioner has joined the investigation.

On instructions from SI Ram Niwas, learned State counsel also states that the petitioner has joined the investigation and his custodial interrogation is not required.

In view of the aforesaid submissions, the order dated 11.07.2022, granting interim bail to the petitioner is made absolute.
