RITU BAHRI, J. (ORAL)

Appellant-Bhawna @ Nisha, has come up in this appeal against the judgment and decree dated 18.07.2019, passed by the learned Principal Judge, Family court, Ambala, whereby the petition under Section 13 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955, (for short 'the Act'), filed by the respondent-husband for dissolution of marriage by a decree of divorce was allowed.

In the present case, marriage between the parties was solemnized on 17.11.2010 at Ambala Cantt according to Hindu rites and ceremonies. They have resided together up to 08.03.2011. The parties have no child out of the wedlock. A petition under Section 13 of the Act, for grant of decree of divorce on the grounds of cruelty and adultery was filed by the respondent-husband. The same was allowed by the learned Principal Judge, Family court, Ambala, vide judgment and decree dated 18.07.2019. Against the said judgment and decree, the appellant-wife has preferred the instant appeal.

Notice of motion in the instant appeal was issued on 15.10.2019 and thereafter, the parties were referred to the Mediation and Conciliation Center of this Court vide order dated 23.12.2021.

Report dated 27.01.2022 from the Mediation and Conciliation Center of this Court was received. As per the said report, the parties have amicably resolved their dispute vide settlement/compromise dated 27.01.2022 and the respondent-husband has agreed to pay Rs.7,50,000/- as full and final settlement towards permanent alimony to the appellant-wife. Out of the aforesaid amount, sum of Rs.30,000/- has already been paid to the appellant-wife and the remaining amount of Rs.7,20,000/- has been paid to the appellant-wife by way of demand draft No.526582 dated 13.05.2022.

The parties are present in Court today and their statements have also been recorded. It is stated by both the parties that they will comply with the terms of the settlement agreement and they will withdraw all the pending cases, if any, filed by them against each other and will not file any case concerning this matrimonial relationship, in future.

Keeping in view the above-said settlement/compromise, the appellant seeks withdrawal of the present appeal.

Dismissed as withdrawn.
