CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ARVIND SINGH SANGWAN

Present: Mr. Tribhawan Singla, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. M.S. Yadav, Advocate for the respondent.

ARVIND SINGH SANGWAN J. (Oral)

Prayer in this petition is for transfer of the petition filed under Section 13 of the Hindu Marriage Act, pending in the Family Court, Sangrur to the competent Court of jurisdiction at Barnala.

Counsel for the parties are ad idem that since two other litigations i.e. a petition filed under Section 125 Cr.P.C. as well as a civil suit under Order 33 Rules 1 and 2 CPC, with regard to a property are pending at Malerkotla, District Sangrur, the petition filed by the respondent/husband under Section 13 of the Hindu Marriage Act, before the Family Court Sangrur be transferred to Camp Court, Malerkotla.

Counsel for the petitioner has relied upon the judgments “Sumita Singh vs Kumar Sanjay”, 2002 SC 396 and “Rajani Kishor Pardeshi vs Kishor Babulal Pardeshi”, 2005(12) SCC 237, wherein the Hon’ble Supreme Court has observed that while deciding the transfer application, the Courts are required to give more weightage and consideration to the convenience of the female litigants and transfer of legal proceedings from one Court to another should ordinarily be allowed, taking into consideration their convenience and the Courts should desist from putting female litigants under undue hardships.”

Counsel for the petitioner has also relied upon the judgment “N.C.V. Aishwarya vs A.S. Saravana Karthik Sha,” 2022 Live Law (SC) 627, wherein the Hon’ble Supreme Court has observed as under:-

9. The cardinal principle for exercise of power under section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure is that the ends of justice should demand the transfer of the suit, appeal or other proceeding. In matrimonial matters, wherever Courts are called upon to consider the plea of transfer, the Courts have to take into consideration the economic soundness of both the parties, the social strata of the spouses and their behavioural pattern, their standard of life prior to the marriage and subsequent thereto and the circumstances of both the parties in eking out their livelihood and under whose protective umbrella they are seeking their sustenance to life. Given the prevailing socioeconomic paradigm in the Indian society, generally, it is the wife's convenience which must be looked at while considering transfer.

10. Further, when two or more proceedings are pending in different Courts between the same parties which raise common question of fact and law, and when the decisions in the cases are interdependent, it is desirable that they should be tried together by the same Judge so as to avoid multiplicity in trial of the same issues and conflict of decisions.”

It is well settled that while considering the transfer of a matrimonial dispute/case at the instance of the wife, the Court is to consider the family condition of the wife, the custody of the minor child, economic condition of the wife, her physical health and earning capacity of the husband and most important the convenience of the wife i.e. she cannot travel alone without assistance of a male member of her family, connectivity of the place to and fro from her place of residence as well as bearing of the litigation charges and travelling expenses.

After hearing the counsel for the parties, in view of the judgments i.e. Sumita Singh's case (supra), Rajani Kishor Pardeshi's case (supra) and N.C.V. Aishwarya's case (supra) passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court and the submissions made by counsel for the parties, this Court deem it appropriate to allow the present petition, subject to the following conditions:-

1. The petition filed under Section 13 of the Hindu Marriage Act, pending before the Family Court, Sangrur will be transferred to the competent Court of jurisdiction at Malerkotla.
2. The District Judge, Sangrur, will assign the said petition to the competent Court of jurisdiction.
3. The Family Court, Sangrur is directed to transfer all the record pertaining to the aforesaid case to District Judge, Malerkotla.
4. The parties are directed to appear before the trial Court, Malerkotla, within a period of 01 month from today.
5. The Family Court, Malerkotla will make all endeavour to refer the case before the Mediation and Conciliation Centre for exploring the possibility of some amicable settlement between the parties.
6. The Court concerned, where the litigation pending between the parties, will accommodate them with one date in one calendar month.

Disposed of.
