In pursuance to the said order, a report has been submitted by Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Amritsar. The relevant portion of the said report is reproduced hereinbelow:-

“IO/ASI Harjit Singh No.2509/ASR has reported that there are only five accused namely Sanjogta Devi, Harpal Singh, Sunita Devi, Jaswinder Kumar @ Sunny and Mohit Kumar @ Bablu and one complainant Gurdish Kaur and two victims Manharpal Singh and Navneet Kaur arrayed in the case FIR No.283/17.10.2020, under Sections 452, 323, 506, 148, 149 of IPC, P.S. B-Division, Amritsar who have never been declared proclaimed offender by any of the court till date as per record and no other case is pending against the said accused persons and complainant and victims except present case.

From the statements, it appears that complainant, victims and accused/petitioners have compromised the matter without any pressure, duress, inducement and threat of any kind from any corner voluntarily with their free will.

Submitted please.

*Sumukhi/PCS,
Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Amritsar”*

A perusal of the above said report would show that the petitioners and respondents No.2 to 4 have appeared and suffered statements with respect to the compromise, which have been found to be voluntary, genuine, and out of free will.

Learned counsel for the petitioners has further submitted that the petitioners were not declared proclaimed offenders in the present case.

Learned State counsel has stated that he has no objection in case the FIR is quashed on the basis of compromise qua the petitioners.

Learned counsel for respondents No.2 to 4 has again reiterated that the matter has been settled and the said compromise is in the interest of all the persons and would help in bringing out peace and amity between the two parties.

This Court has heard the learned counsel for the parties and has perused the file.

After perusing the report submitted by the trial Court, this Court finds that the matter has been amicably settled between the petitioners and the complainant. Since the matter has been settled and the parties have decided to live in peace, this Court feels that in order to secure the ends of justice, the criminal proceedings deserve to be quashed.

As per the Full Bench judgment of this Court in “Kulwinder Singh and others Vs State of Punjab”, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052, it is held that High Court has power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. to allow the compounding of non-compoundable offence and quash the prosecution where the High Court is of the opinion that the same is required to prevent the abuse of the process of law or otherwise to secure the ends of justice.

This power of quashing is not confined to matrimonial disputes alone.

Hon'ble the Apex Court in the case of “Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab and another”, 2012 (4) RCR (Criminal) 543, had also observed that in order to secure the ends of justice or to prevent the abuse of process of Court, inherent power can be used by this Court to quash criminal proceedings in which a compromise has been effected. The relevant portion of para 57 of the said judgment is reproduced hereinbelow:-

“57. The position that emerges from the above discussion can be summarised thus: the power of the High Court in quashing a criminal proceeding or FIR or complaint in exercise of its inherent jurisdiction is distinct and different from the power given to a criminal court for compounding the offences under Section 320 of the Code. Inherent power is of wide plenitude with no statutory limitation but it has to be exercised in accord with the guideline engrafted in such power viz; (i) to secure the ends of justice or (ii) to prevent abuse of the process of any Court.”

In view of what has been discussed hereinabove, this petition is allowed and FIR No.283 dated 17.10.2020, registered under Sections 452, 323, 506, 148 and 149 IPC, at Police Station PS Division-B, District Police Commissionerate, Amritsar (Annexure P-1) along with all consequential proceedings emanating therefrom are ordered to be quashed, qua the petitioners.
