CRM-11728-2022

The present application has been filed for placing on record
Annexure P-X and P-Y.

For the reasons recorded in the application, the same is allowed and Annexure P-X and P-Y are taken on record subject to just exceptions.

Main case

The learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that in the present case there was a financial dispute between the petitioner and respondent No.2 and the matter has since been compromised between the parties. He referred to order passed by this Court dated 01.12.2020 whereby learned counsel for respondent No.2/complainant had also admitted the factum of compromise between the parties and that an amount of Rs. 4,00,000/- had been transferred to the complainant through RTGS and thereafter again on 19.08.2021 both the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as counsel for the complainant had submitted that the matter has been compromised between the parties and it was basically a civil dispute. Apart from the same even the by way of CRM-11728-2022 the affidavit of the complainant has also been placed on record. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that earlier the learned counsel for the complainant had appeared through video conferencing and he had chosen not to appear in the physical hearing but since the matter has been compromised between the parties and in pursuance of the orders passed by this Court on 01.12.2020 the petitioner has joined investigation and has also cooperated with the investigation process and, therefore, he has prayed that the order dated 01.12.2020 may be made absolute.

Mr, Naveen Singh Panwar, learned Deputy Advocate General, Haryana has submitted on instructions from SI Prince that in pursuance of the orders passed by this Court on 01.12.2020 the petitioner has joined investigation and he has also cooperated with the investigation process and he has specific instructions to submit that the petitioner is not required for custodial interrogation.

In view of the aforesaid factual position as well as the stand taken by learned State counsel, the present petition is allowed and order dated 01.12.2020 is hereby made absolute.
