....Appellant

Versus

State of Haryana and others

..Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KSHETARPAL

Present: Mr. B.B.Kaushik, Advocate for the review applicant

ANIL KSHETARPAL, J (Oral)

A review application has been filed complaining that the lead counsel in the appeal was not heard when the Regular Second Appeal was dismissed.

The lead counsel has now been heard. It is evident from the reading of para 18 of the judgment passed by the learned First Appellate Court that the revision petition filed by the appellant, objecting to the adverse remarks recorded, by the Superintendent of Police, for the period 01.04.2008 to 24.12.2008, was rejected finally on 12.09.2011 by the Director General of Police. The plaintiff filed a suit for declaration on 15.03.2016. The appellant was censured by the Superintendent of Police, Bhiwani, vide an order dated 01.07.2008. Learned counsel representing the appellant admits that the aforesaid order has become final.

Hence, no ground to review order dated 13.03.2020 is made out.

Dismissed.

All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
